The Board thanks all the candidates – Ron Coe, Jytte Gillies, Bill Higgins, Olga Kisch and Barbara Stoecklin- who participated in the 2010 elections process for their demonstrated and active contribution to our Association and for their interest in serving in a leadership role.

The Board also thanks the 2010 Nominations and Elections Committee Chair- Jack Cronin and his great Team of volunteers for their service in ensuring a smooth and well-organized elections process.

The 2010 – 2011 Board of Directors:

Charles Sequeira -	President	Ron Coe -	Director
Virginia Bodnar -	Vice-President	Bob Collard -	Director
Ruth Church -	Treasurer	Bill Higgins -	Director
Jytte Gillies -	Secretary	Derek Murray -	Director
		Barbara Stoecklin -	Director

We welcome Ron Coe and Jytte Gillies as our new Board members. Ron's participation, knowledge and enthusiasm for creating new projects have made the Wood Shop a very popular activity. Ron is especially appreciated at the Aurora Town Hall for many of his projects that he created for them over the past years. Mayor Morris chose one of his projects, a wooden made Pen as a special gift for the guests at Town Hall. The A.S.A is very proud for this acknowledgement.

Jytte Gillies was the creator of Aurora Seniors Associations Logo, and the Chair of the Operations & Activities Committee, member of the By-Law Committee and her banking background is valued in helping the ASA- Treasurer. Jytte is the founder of the Aurora Seniors Opera Club, and has brought Opera to members of the York Region. Jytte and Ron will both be a valuable resource to the Board.

And lastly, we sincerely thank all of you – our members – for your confidence in re-electing Bill Higgins and Barbara Stoecklin – and for supporting our efforts and commitment to our mission to offer programs and activities in an atmosphere of friendship and understanding so as to enhance the lives of all of us older adults.
